8. Personal declaration

I assure, that

- the details given are correct and complete. I understand that false information provided in the application form may lead to a revocation of the enrolment.

I declare, that

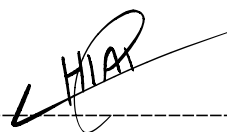

- in the degree course for which I wish to register I have not failed any (partial) examination definitely and that I have not lost my entitlement to be accepted to the examinations for any other reason.
- I have not signed any service, employment, or trainee contract. (Activities as undergraduate or academic assistant or as a student adviser at the university are not considered as employment within the meaning of this declaration.) Should I have a service, employment or training relationship, I will enclose suitable documents which prove that I have sufficient time for my studies, in particular for regular attendance at the lectures (e.g. employer's certificate concerning the scope of the occupation).
- I do not have a prison sentence.
- I do not suffer from any illness which would be a serious threat to the other students' health or which would impede or even exclude orderly studies.
- I was not banned from studying by a foreign registration office.
- my data may be saved and used at a later date for alumni purposes. I may revoke this consent at any time of my choosing.
- I have read the information on the private use of the Internet Services and E-Mail at the Hochschule Ravensburg-Weingarten (RWU). The wording of the agreement is available under:
<https://www.rwu.de/en/studies/services-students/student-administration-office>
